

Chapel Offering

The children have selected a new project for the months of December, January and February. Life Choices assists mothers in challenging circumstances and encourages mothers to choose life for their unborn child. This Christian organization provides compassionate counsel support to women in hopes of saving the lives of children who might otherwise be aborted. While this is a challenging topic for children, we emphasize the value of every life—from the very youngest to the very oldest as being precious to the Lord!