

We are looking for a catch phrase for the cowboy/wild west theme auction. We would like to have people submit their ideas and email them to:

jacobandlauraowen@gmail.com

The deadline is September 16th and the person whose idea is voted up will win a $10 Starbucks card. Some past examples are ; French theme -"Pour Les Enfants", Asian theme - "Let the Children Blossom", Irish theme -"Bless the Lads and Lasses" and the Medieval theme "For the Kids of the Kingdom". It should reflect the western theme and the children.
